

April 11, 2011

Dear Friend of Classical Music:

To accommodate our performers' schedules, we must make a change in the program we previously announced.

The Friends of Classical Music will sponsor four events in the 2011 Season:

Saturday, May 14 – Dinner and music with the Lake Sagamore Renaissance and Baroque Ensemble and guest musicians Midhat Serbagi and Ralph Zeitlin at the home of Paul and Barbara Krieger.

Saturday, July 9 – The young, gifted and critically acclaimed Voxare String Quartet in an evening performance at the Sedgewood Boathouse.

Saturday, August 6 – Dinner and music with violinist Eric Grossman, pianist Lida Grossman and violist Midhat Serbagi at the home of Roy Volpe and Sue Gamache.

Sunday, October 30 – an afternoon performance at Tilly Foster with Carmel's own Nancy Allen, Principal Harpist of the New York Philharmonic, accompanied by flute and viola.

If you are already a Friend, please let us know in advance of each event when you can attend.

If you would like to become a Friend of Classical Music, please send a check for $125 per person to Arts on the Lake. Membership includes admission to all four events. You may join also by credit card on the Friends page at www.artsonthelake.org.

The May 14th dinner/performance is limited to Friends or colleagues of the performers, but individual tickets to all other events ($45-$25) will go on sale about two months in advance.

We look forward to your enjoyment of the Classical Music Program of Arts on the Lake.

Sincerely,

Midhat Serbagi, Honorary Chairman

Jeanne Buck, Friends Administrator

James Shearwood, Executive Director, Arts on the Lake
